To-Day.

RACE TRACK, CLIFTON, Nov. 18.—
The Fall meeting of the Clifton Jockey Club closed to-day, and the attendance was of fair proportions.

The programme was rather attractive, and furnished fair sport.

The track was in splendid condition.
Many owners left for Guttenburg today and considerable scratching was necessarily done.

The weather was cloudy and threatening.

The slaughter of favorites was continued. Flatlands was the first to go down.

My Gips, a heavily plumed second choice, won all the way. Those who bet on My Gips did not attempt to explain her last race. Lita, a favorite to chance, was third.

Robin Hood, the favorite in the second race, helped the talent a trifle by winning hands down. West Park, second choice, secured the place from Milan, who was well placed.

Comanche was the favorite in the third race, but Reinsaid had considerable support. The race resulted in a furious drive. Overton fairly outdistanced Doggett and landing Comanche a winner by a head. Flatlands was a bad third.

DIRECTUM-ALIX DATE FIXED.

The Champion Trotters Will Race at Fleetwood Tuesday.

A Match for $5,000 That Delights the Turf Lovers.

The great race between the champion trotters Directum and Alix, which was to have taken place at Boston, having been declared off on account of the state of the track there, it has been decided to trot the horses at Fleetwood Park next Tuesday for $5,000. Directum, exhibited by J. E. Wells, is a fine horse, and Alix, exhibited by J. E. Wells, is a fine horse.

Directum, the king, is well-known in New York. He is a great favorite here because of his brilliant laurels at Fleetwood. Alix, however, has not been seen here before. Both horses are in the pink of condition.

Alix won the greatest race ever trotted although her record is but 2:27.4, or two and a half minutes slower than that of her rival, but she has the champion race record for her sex. She has been driven a mile in her work in 2:05.

Thousands Go to the Garden to See Directum.

This is the last day of the Horse Show and horse-lovers made the most of it.
The attendance during the morning hours was noticeably larger than on any previous day. The ring was surrounded by enthusiasts during the hour for exercise, and there was much applause when the various prize-winners were led out to be put through their paces.

This is known as champion day. The big attraction is the exhibition of the great trotting stallion Directum, with a record of 2:05.14.

ORANGE VS. CRESCENT

Struggle for the Local Football Championship.

End of First Half the Score Was Orange, 6; Crescent, 4.

Pennsylvania Defeats Cornell at Philadelphia, 50 to 0.

EASTERN PARK, Nov. 18.—The football eleven of the Crescent and Orange A. C. clubs played here today to decide the championship of the American Football Union. These two teams are at their way as great rivals as Yale and Harvard.

All their hard practice work of the past two months was with the aim to win this game.

The Crescents were slight favorites, though the teams were considered to be more evenly matched this year than ever before. Each has done some excellent work against the strong college eleven. The threatening weather kept the attendance down; about 1,800 people were present.

The teams lined up at 3 o'clock as follows:

Crescent. Positions. Orange.
Pratt, Left End. Griswold, Hobbs, Left Tackle. Webb, Hobbs, Left Guard. Vanhook, Hobbs, Center. Hobbs, Right Guard. Hobbs, Right Tackle. Hobbs, Hobbs, Right End. Hobbs, Full Back.
Hobbs, Half Back. Hobbs, Quarter Back.
Hobbs, Full Back. Hobbs, Half Back.
Hobbs, Quarter Back. Hobbs, Full Back.
Hobbs, Half Back. Hobbs, Quarter Back.

The game began with Crescent in possession of the ball. Harry Beecher, the famous Yale quarterback, was on hand in uniform to coach the Crescents.

The Crescents opened with a flying kick, which was blocked by the Oranges. Orange got the ball on downs, and the ball went back to Crescent.

Orange could make no further gain,
and the ball went back to Crescent.

Orange braced up and secured the ball on their fifteen-yard line, and then advanced the ball slowly by revolving wedges. Offside play gave Crescent the ball.

Sheldon dropped the ball while making a fine run and an orange man fell on it.
The play immediately went back to Crescent on a fumble.

Sharp line-breaking by orange prevented any gain and gave them the ball again. All the play so far had been in orange territory on Orange's forty-yard line.

Hurdick broke through, secured the ball from Crescent on a fumble and made a splendid run of thirty yards into Cre-scent's territory.

The Crescents got the ball on downs and the ball went back to Crescent.
